I, Bradley Clonan, recently learned—through communication with the New Jersey Office of the Public Defender, Division of Mental Health Advocacy—that the court-mandated order for my 72-hour involuntary hold was not completed until March 27, 2023. However, I had already been transferred from CentraState Hospital on March 25, 2023, and was held involuntarily at Hampton Behavioral Institute for two days following that transfer preemptively before any court order was established. Meaning, for a period from March 24th, 2023 until March 27th, 2023 even after being medically cleared, and asking to leave; I was held involuntarily without any legal justification after a voluntary medical assessment beginning at CentraState hospital. The full length of my stay at Hampton Behavioral Health Center was extended as well based on the ‘mistakes’ made further.

I have sought clarification regarding this discrepancy, as I entered CentraState Hospital voluntarily and was subsequently denied the ability to leave after being medically cleared. During my time at Hampton, I was informed that a judge had ordered my commitment upon intake. To date, these critical questions remain unanswered.
